Seeking Community Volunteer Board Members to Help Govern Sarnia-Lambton's Children's Mental Health Centre

St. Clair Child & Youth Services is seeking candidates to serve on its Board of Directors. This is an opportunity to volunteer your skills and experience to help shape children's mental health in Sarnia-Lambton by providing advice, input and leadership on a broad range of policy and governance issues.

St. Clair Child & Youth Services provides mental health and other related services for children and youth and their families. The child and youth mental health system in Ontario is in a period of significant transformation, increasingly focused on collaboration, leadership, performance excellence and better outcomes for children and youth. St. Clair Child & Youth Services has recently been named the accountable organization (Lead Agency) for planning and delivery of mental health services for children and youth in Lambton County.

Board Member Qualifications:

- ◆ Ability to contribute to setting strategic direction and guiding system change in a period of transformation;
- ◆ Experience contributing to strategic governance with an active volunteer Board of Directors;
- ◆ A willingness to champion better outcomes for children and youth at risk and their families;
- ◆ Knowledge of issues and needs in St. Clair Child & Youth Services' catchment;
- ◆ Energy, optimism, leadership and insight.

Our Board meets at least eight times a year with additional expectations to serve on committees and ad hoc work groups, and to participate in organization-wide events. We invite you to join us during this period of unprecedented opportunity to contribute to positive growth in the child and youth service system in Ontario.

St. Clair Child & Youth Services promotes an inclusive and barrier-free environment. We encourage and welcome applicants from diverse backgrounds of ability, culture, race, religion, and those representing under-served populations.

If you have the qualifications for, and are interested in, our Board, please apply in writing with a cover letter and resume to:
